

The IBGA Show Series is designed to encourage the exhibition, marketing and promotion of Boer and Meat Goats in and around the State of Indiana. Any show chosen to host an IBGA Show Series Event must be open to all IBGA members and to all members of the National Sanctioning Registry.

HOSTING AN IBGA SUMMER SHOW SERIES SHOW

Members or local organizations wishing to host a IBGA Show Series show for the following year should complete this packet and submit the information to the IBGA Show Secretary by August 15th the year prior. These dates and locations will be presented to the membership at the Annual Meeting held at the Fall Classic and the members in attendance will be solicited for input and opinions about the locations, which will be forwarded to the Show Committee.

SELECTION PROCESS

The Show Committee shall select locations from applications for shows for the following season and determine the sanctioning national registry.

This selection process will be completed within sixty (60) days AFTER the date of the Fall Classic meeting. The show information will be forwarded to the Executive Committee for final vote.

Consideration will be given to location, cost, and financial reimbursement available for each show location.

APPROVAL

Once hosting locations have been approved, the Show Committee will contact hosting organization and inform them that they have been approved.

SHOW CHAIRMAN

Once approved, the local hosting organization will designate a Show Chairman who can communicate with the IBGA Show Committee to ensure the success of the show.

HOST ORGANIZATION RESPONSIBILITY

The Show Chairman will be responsible for providing the following information to the Show Committee with the IBGA Sanctioned Show Application.

- Local accommodations, including recommended hotels and/or camping facilities.
- Number of available pens, and size of pens
- Name and Physical address of host facility
- If food will be available on site.

The Show Chairman and Local Hosting Organization will be responsible for the following:

- Securing and Organizing volunteers (Minimum of 5 people, up to 10)

- Ring Steward – Approx 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM EST
- Announcer – Approx 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM EST

- Two (2) adults to weigh/check in goats before the show - Approx 7:00 AM – 9:00 AM EST
- Two (2) adults to check in classes during the show - Approx 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM EST
- One (1) person in charge of the grounds – electric, wash racks, pens, etc. - Approx 7:00 AM – 3:00 PM EST
- Volunteers to pass out ribbons/awards for individual classes - Approx 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM EST
- National Anthem – 9:00 EST
- Pen Set Up
  - Pens should be set up and ready to go the afternoon before to the show.
- Wash Racks Open / Turned On
  - Wash racks should be available the afternoon before the show.
- Sound System
  - Ensure sound system is set up and operational and can be heard in all barns and common areas where exhibitors may congregate.
- Electricity on and available the afternoon before the show.
- Restroom Facilities
  - Ensure restroom facilities are open, clean, and available and are supplied with necessary items by the Friday afternoon (4 PM local time) before the show.
- Providing information regarding local accommodations with application.
- The hosting organization will be required to provide shavings available for purchase on site for the duration of the show.
- Providing food on site, available for purchase.
- Provide clean-up of the facilities at the end of the show

The Indiana Boer Goat Classic also recommends (but does not require) that local organizations consider the following options. These are excellent ways to bring in additional revenue for the hosting club and ensure a quality experience for exhibitors and attendees.

- Camping on site (if available) for a nominal fee

IBGA RESPONSIBILITY

The Indiana Boer Goat Association will provide the following:

- Liability insurance
- Qualified Judges
- Advertising and Promotion of the Event
- Youth Awards (Cash and Prizes)
- The IBGA Secretary/Treasurer will handle show entries with assistance from the local sponsoring group and Show Committee.
- The IBGA Secretary/Treasurer will handle sponsoring Registry Association paperwork.
- The Show Committee will work with the Show Chairman and
  - Secretary/Treasurer to ensure that someone is available to coordinate ribbons, premiums, entries, and awards at each show.

FACILITY PAYOUTS

Payout will be paid back to the local organization under the following guidelines:

- Option A: $1500 – The sum of $1500 will be paid back to the hosting organization if the following items are provided: clean working facilities (i.e., restrooms & wash racks), pens, enclosed, properly bedded show ring, and appropriate volunteer personnel based on the list above.
- Option B: $1000 – The sum of $1000 will be paid back to the hosting organization if the following items are provided: clean working facilities (i.e., restrooms & wash racks), enclosed, properly bedded show ring, and appropriate volunteer personnel based on the list above.
- Option C: $750 – The sum of $750 will be paid back to the hosting organization if the following items are provided: clean working facilities (i.e., restrooms & wash racks), enclosed, properly bedded showring and pens.
- Option D: $500 – The sum of $500 will be paid back to the hosting organization if the following items are provided: clean working facilities, enclosed properly bedded showring.

SHOW RULES

Shows will follow the guidelines as outlined in the Indiana Boer Goat Association Show Rules in addition to the rules of the sanctioning Registry Association. A list of complete rules can be found on the IBGA website <https://www.indianaboergoatclassic.org/copy-of-sanctioned-shows>

IBGA POINTS

The only way an independent show may gain permission to award IBGA Points is to become a part of the IBGA Show Series, as one of the sanctioned shows in the series, and follow all the rules and regulations of the IBGA, including ensuring that all juniors receiving points at the show are members. At least one person in the group organizing the independent show must be a member of the Indiana Boer Goat Association.
